

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

—Spring stallion show at Regina on 3rd May. See advt. in this issue.

—Supt. Moffatt of the N.W.M.P. is in Toronto enrolling recruits for the force.

—Miss S. Elliott, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Wm. Mulligan, still for her home in Wolseley by Tuesday night's train.

—An Old Timers' Association was formed at Moose Jaw last week with Jas. Campbell, president; G. M. Annable, vice president; and W. C. Sanders, Sec'y-treas. An old timer's banquet will be held in June.

—A. E. Meyer of the '90 Normal class has returned from Guelph, Ont., where he has been spending the winter. Mr. Meyer will teach the Arras school near Regina.

—Every member of the Assembly was in attendance at the session on Monday. Messrs. McKay and Myers came down on the Prince Albert train Saturday and Dr. Patrick came in from Winnipeg Sunday morning.

—J. W. Connell, M.L.A., and Conservative candidate in East Assiniboin, addressed a meeting at Qu'Appelle Station on Saturday, and is reported to have denied his membership in the grain or elevator association or combine.

—A company of thirty-four North-West Mounted Police recruits arrived at Regina on Thursday last from Prince Edward Island, all fine looking men. Supt. Moffatt passed 21 recruits at Toronto last week out of a list of forty applicants, and proceeded thence to London to continue recruiting.

—The Editor of THE LEADER is in receipt of an invitation to attend a banquet to be given on 12th April by the citizens of Medicine Hat to the President and members of the Western Stock Growers' Association, which important body meets at Medicine Hat this year.

—Father Von Heertum has returned from a visit to his former parish in Wisconsin. With him came Father Bresson, a member of the order to which Father Von Heertum belongs, and which is being established in Canada. Father Bresson will have charge of the large colony of Nendorf, north of Grenfell, and will have headquarters at Regina, to co-operate with Father Von Heertum.

—A very pleasant meeting was held at Fairview on Wednesday of last week in Conservative interests. Mr. John Hawkes spoke for two hours, and received a patient hearing. Mr. S. A. Clarke also spoke. The organisers did not attempt to procure the formation of a Conservative association in Fairview district. Already there are Liberal and Independent associations there, which fairly well fill the field.

—Mrs. Church at Barracks a few days ago received from her husband, Sergt. Major Church, of Canadian Mounted Rifles, from Cape Town, South Africa, a complete series of "Pomeranian Spouse," the original newspaper. In the issue of Feb. 22nd it is stated that Corporals Pope, Brown and O'Kelly were promoted to be Sergeants, and that Privates V. Dodd, Taylor, Leah Stevens, T. Brown and Cudlip were promoted to be Corporals.

—A lady well known in Regina has since breaking up house at Regina have been stopping with Mrs. Swinfold. Mrs. Fraser's mother, at Winnipeg, passed through on Friday morning last en route to Lethbridge to rejoin Mr. Fraser.

—60,000 men, women and children reported to be suffering from famine in India. Two cents a day will support a life. One dollar will keep man, woman and child one month from starvation. Five dollars will save five lives for four months, says the Free Press.

—Superintendent Goggin has accepted the offer of Trinity University, Toronto, to confer on him at its next public convocation the degree of LL.D. This degree is reserved for men who have attained exceptional distinction in some sphere of public influence.

—Through the oversight mentioned in the last issue of the curling match between Lumsden and Regina rinks on Wednesday the 21st Blair's rink of Lumsden won two games against Skip Willoughby of Regina and Balfour's rink of Lumsden lost two games to F. Nash of Regina.

—The Ladies' Hospital Aid wish to acknowledge through the press the kindness of Manager Williamson of the Regina Skating Rink in placing the rink at their disposal for the "hospital" carnival held on Friday evening last, by which the sum of $25.00 was netted to the funds of the Ladies' Hospital Aid.

—His Honour the Lieut.-Governor and Madame Forget entertained the following ladies and gentlemen at Government House on 29th March:—M. H. H. Head, Mr. Ross and Mrs. Ross, Hon. Mr. Bulley and Mrs. Bulley, Mr. Speaker Eaton, Asst. Commissioner McMillen and Mrs. McMillen, Supt. and Mrs. Constantine, Capt. and Mrs. Gilpin-Brown.

—Mrs. Sarah Jane Holby of Regina, who has been ailing for a year or more, was taken suddenly worse on Monday evening last and on Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock passed quietly away. Mrs. Holby was the wife of Matthias Holby, deceased, who came to Regina in 1882. Four sons, Thomas, John and Albert of Winnipeg, and Henry, of Regina, and two daughters, Mary and Alice, mourn the loss of a highly-respected and much-loved mother. The funeral will leave the family residence on Lorne street at half-past two to-day. The funeral service will be preached by Rev. Mr. Milliken in the Methodist church. Two sons, Thomas and John, came up from Winnipeg to attend the funeral.

—The Wetsaskiwin North Star beams rather coldly upon Conservative hopes in Alberta: The North Star says:—"The Conservatives in this section of the country are already actively organizing Conservative clubs in all the towns along the line, and wish to select some to run against our old friend, Frank Oliver, as member for Alberta." We received one of these circulars because the writer is a Conservative and his (her) but he had to decline taking any action part, because all the Conservatives we knew about here are Liberals since Laurier got in, and we didn't like being the only member of the club and holding meetings with only ourselves to talk to, besides, and you can stick a pin in this, the man that can get more votes than Frank Oliver in Alberta is not born yet. Frank Oliver has his faults, but "turning his coat" or deserting his friends for the sake of a few dollars worth of Government "pop" is something he would soon do. We pray you that he isn't getting houses erected and built on every man's farm that voted for him, but he is doing good, hard, honest work for the welfare of the country, and whether he is a Liberal or a Conservative he is good enough for us, and we don't expect a dollar for telling our readers so, as the North Star plays no favorites and shines on all good men."

SEEDTIME IS ALMOST HERE.

and before seeding is over you! Horses will have to do a lot of hard work... Bring them into good condition by using

"CAPITAL" CONDITION POWDERS.... 25 cts. per lb.

O. A. ANDERSON & CO., Chemists and Druggists.

P.S.—Don't forget that we carry the best SEEDS and GOPHER POISON on the market.

—Miss Katie Carmichael of Regina has gone to teach the Sterling school for the summer.

—Fred Smith of the W. J. Gage Co., Toronto, paid his quarterly visit to Kennell, Feb. 14, for Mr. Collier $24.25; per Lt.-Governor Forget—E. E. Low, $2.00 and F. R. Blakeney, $5.00.

The Bank will receive contributions and forward.

—Archibald Forbes, the celebrated war correspondent who visited Regina in 1885, died in London.

—Miss Neelands and Miss Post, milliners at John Dobbin's are having their opening April 6 and 7.

—Miss Katie Carmichael of Regina left on Saturday to take charge of Sterling school for the summer.

—The regular monthly meeting of the Junior Liberal Association takes place to-morrow night, April 6.

—Donald S. McCannell of Qu'Appelle Station, is appointed Agent for Regina District, Dominion Lands, and will assume the duties on 1st May.

—Harold Johnston, a fine young man who was engaged in ranching for several years north of Moose Jaw, died on 12th March.

Master Mechanic Cross of the C.P.R., Winnipeg, will be promoted to the position of consulting mechanical engineer. C. R. Ord will succeed Mr. Cross.

—Major Findlay of Medicine Hat, and Captain Hitchcock of Moose Jaw, were present at the opening of the North-West Assembly at Regina on 29th March.

The death occurred at Moose Jaw on March 24th of James Gilmour, second son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Gilmour, in his fortieth year, leaving a widow and three children.

—Mr. Cross, M.L.A., left on Tuesday morning for his home at Calgary, wearing a glad smile. The intelligence by telegraph is to the effect that it is a daughter.

—The final in the Grand Challenge curling contest was played last Friday night between McCarthy-Ross and Nash-Pingle, the former winning by one point.

—The monthly meeting of the Methodist ladies' aid will be held at the home of Mr. G. W. Brown on Thursday afternoon. The meeting will be of the nature of a social gathering to which all are invited.

Lambton Bohn, Editor of the Carrduff Gazette, is attending the session of the Legislature at Regina in the interest of his journal. Mr. Bohn was formerly on the staff of the London (Eng.) Standard.

—The following members of Assembly are described at the Lansdowne:—Messrs. Patrick Smith, McCauley, McDaniel, Clegg, Gisley, Sheria, Fisher, Lake, De Veer, McIntyre, Rosenthal and Speaker Eakin.

Mrs. McLeod, wife of the member for Prince Albert East; Mrs. McCauley, wife of the member for Edmonton; and Mrs. Sheria, wife of the member for Victoria, accompanied their husbands to the capital for the session.

—During the Assembly session the Windsor is the home of the following members:—Messrs. McKay, Meyers, Gillis, Hawkes, McDermid, Elliott, Villeneuve, Simpson, Sifton, Wallace, Connell, Bennett, McLeod and Prince.

—Mrs. A. J. Fraser and family who since breaking up house at Regina have been staying with Mrs. Swinfold. Mrs. Fraser's mother, at Winnipeg, passed through on Friday morning last en route to Lethbridge to rejoin Mr. Fraser.

—60,000 men, women and children reported to be suffering from famine in India. Two cents a day will support a life. One dollar will keep man, woman and child one month from starvation. Five dollars will save five lives for four months, says the Free Press.

—Superintendent Goggin has accepted the offer of Trinity University, Toronto, to confer on him at its next public convocation the degree of LL.D. This degree is reserved for men who have attained exceptional distinction in some sphere of public influence.

—Through the oversight mentioned in the last issue of the curling match between Lumsden and Regina rinks on Wednesday the 21st Blair's rink of Lumsden won two games against Skip Willoughby of Regina and Balfour's rink of Lumsden lost two games to F. Nash of Regina.

—The Ladies' Hospital Aid wish to acknowledge through the press the kindness of Manager Williamson of the Regina Skating Rink in placing the rink at their disposal for the "hospital" carnival held on Friday evening last, by which the sum of $25.00 was netted to the funds of the Ladies' Hospital Aid.

—His Honour the Lieut.-Governor and Madame Forget entertained the following ladies and gentlemen at Government House on 29th March:—M. H. H. Head, Mr. Ross and Mrs. Ross, Hon. Mr. Bulley and Mrs. Bulley, Mr. Speaker Eaton, Asst. Commissioner McMillen and Mrs. McMillen, Supt. and Mrs. Constantine, Capt. and Mrs. Gilpin-Brown.

—Mrs. Sarah Jane Holby of Regina, who has been ailing for a year or more, was taken suddenly worse on Monday evening last and on Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock passed quietly away. Mrs. Holby was the wife of Matthias Holby, deceased, who came to Regina in 1882. Four sons, Thomas, John and Albert of Winnipeg, and Henry, of Regina, and two daughters, Mary and Alice, mourn the loss of a highly-respected and much-loved mother. The funeral will leave the family residence on Lorne street at half-past two to-day. The funeral service will be preached by Rev. Mr. Milliken in the Methodist church. Two sons, Thomas and John, came up from Winnipeg to attend the funeral.

—The Wetsaskiwin North Star beams rather coldly upon Conservative hopes in Alberta: The North Star says:—"The Conservatives in this section of the country are already actively organizing Conservative clubs in all the towns along the line, and wish to select some to run against our old friend, Frank Oliver, as member for Alberta." We received one of these circulars because the writer is a Conservative and his (her) but he had to decline taking any action part, because all the Conservatives we knew about here are Liberals since Laurier got in, and we didn't like being the only member of the club and holding meetings with only ourselves to talk to, besides, and you can stick a pin in this, the man that can get more votes than Frank Oliver in Alberta is not born yet. Frank Oliver has his faults, but "turning his coat" or deserting his friends for the sake of a few dollars worth of Government "pop" is something he would soon do. We pray you that he isn't getting houses erected and built on every man's farm that voted for him, but he is doing good, hard, honest work for the welfare of the country, and whether he is a Liberal or a Conservative he is good enough for us, and we don't expect a dollar for telling our readers so, as the North Star plays no favorites and shines on all good men."

Patriotic Fund.

The following contributions to the Patriotic Fund have been received by the Bank of Montreal here:—Mr. Beneke, $1.00; proceeds concert at Kennell, Feb. 14, for Mr. Collier $24.25; per Lt.-Governor Forget—E. E. Low, $2.00 and F. R. Blakeney, $5.00.

The Bank will receive contributions and forward.

Carnival in Aid of Hospital.

The proprietor of the Regina skating rink, Mr. W. M. Williamson, generously granted the use of the ice for Friday night last to the ladies of the Hospital Aid when a grand masquerade carnival was held. The result was most gratifying to the ladies who were responsible for the management. Proceeds amounted to $25.00. Owing to the fact that the names and costumes of the masqueraders cannot be given Mr. and Mrs. Steinhorn were awarded the prizes for best costumes and John Cotton and Cannon Bennett won the prizes for boys race.

Mr. McCauley Wedded.

Prior to leaving Edmonton for Regina to attend the legislative session, Mr. M. McCauley, the popular Member of Assembly for Edmonton, took unto himself a wife. The Bulletin states:—

"On Tuesday morning in the Hotel Royal York, Mr. McCauley, another at Mr. Cross, and still another at Mr. Sheria)—troars of laughter and the clatter of glasses as these, and from the expressions of contentment on the faces of at least one or two of the Members here with a slight glance at Mr. McCauley, another at Mr. Cross, and still another at Mr. Sheria)—troars of laughter

and the clatter of glasses as these, and from the expressions of contentment on the faces of at least one or two of the Members here with a slight glance at Mr. McCauley, another at Mr. Cross, and still another at Mr. Sheria)—troars of laughter

and the clatter of glasses as these, and from the expressions of contentment on the faces of at least one or two of the Members here with a slight glance at Mr. McCauley, another at Mr. Cross, and still another at Mr. Sheria)—troars of laughter

and the clatter of glasses as these, and from the expressions of contentment on the faces of at least one or two of the Members here with a slight glance at Mr. McCauley, another at Mr. Cross, and still another at Mr. Sheria)—troars of laughter

and the clatter of glasses as these, and from the expressions of contentment on the faces of at least one or two of the Members here with a slight glance at Mr. McCauley, another at Mr. Cross, and still another at Mr. Sheria)—troars of laughter

and the clatter of glasses as these, and from the expressions of contentment on the faces of at least one or two of the Members here with a slight glance at Mr. McCauley, another at Mr. Cross, and still another at Mr. Sheria)—troars of laughter

and the clatter of glasses as these, and from the expressions of contentment on the faces of at least one or two of the Members here with a slight glance at Mr. McCauley, another at Mr. Cross, and still another at Mr. Sheria)—troars of laughter

and the clatter of glasses as these, and from the expressions of contentment on the faces of at least one or two of the Members here with a slight glance at Mr. McCauley, another at Mr. Cross, and still another at Mr. Sheria)—troars of laughter

and the clatter of glasses as these, and from the expressions of contentment on the faces of at least one or two of the Members here with a slight glance at Mr. McCauley, another at Mr. Cross, and still another at Mr. Sheria)—troars of laughter

and the clatter of glasses as these, and from the expressions of contentment on the faces of at least one or two of the Members here with a slight glance at Mr. McCauley, another at Mr. Cross, and still another at Mr. Sheria)—troars of laughter

and the clatter of glasses as these, and from the expressions of contentment on the faces of at least one or two of the Members here with a slight glance at Mr. McCauley, another at Mr. Cross, and still another at Mr. Sheria)—troars of laughter

and the clatter of glasses as these, and from the expressions of contentment on the faces of at least one or two of the Members here with a slight glance at Mr. McCauley, another at Mr. Cross, and still another at Mr. Sheria)—troars of laughter

and the clatter of glasses as these, and from the expressions of contentment on the faces of at least one or two of the Members here with a slight glance at Mr. McCauley, another at Mr. Cross, and still another at Mr. Sheria)—troars of laughter

and the clatter of glasses as these, and from the expressions of contentment on the faces of at least one or two of the Members here with a slight glance at Mr. McCauley, another at Mr. Cross, and still another at Mr. Sheria)—troars of laughter

and the clatter of glasses as these, and from the expressions of contentment on the faces of at least one or two of the Members here with a slight glance at Mr. McCauley, another at Mr. Cross, and still another at Mr. Sheria)—troars of laughter

and the clatter of glasses as these, and from the expressions of contentment on the faces of at least one or two of the Members here with a slight glance at Mr. McCauley, another at Mr. Cross, and still another at Mr. Sheria)—troars of laughter

and the clatter of glasses as these, and from the expressions of contentment on the faces of at least one or two of the Members here with a slight glance at Mr. McCauley, another at Mr. Cross, and still another at Mr. Sheria)—troars of laughter

and the clatter of glasses as these, and from the expressions of contentment on the faces of at least one or two of the Members here with a slight glance at Mr. McCauley, another at Mr. Cross, and still another at Mr. Sheria)—troars of laughter

and the clatter of glasses as these, and from the expressions of contentment on the faces of at least one or two of the Members here with a slight glance at Mr. McCauley, another at Mr. Cross, and still another at Mr. Sheria)—troars of laughter

and the clatter of glasses as these, and from the expressions of contentment on the faces of at least one or two of the Members here with a slight glance at Mr. McCauley, another at Mr. Cross, and still another at Mr. Sheria)—troars of laughter

and the clatter of glasses as these, and from the expressions of contentment on the faces of at least one or two of the Members here with a slight glance at Mr. McCauley, another at Mr. Cross, and still another at Mr. Sheria)—troars of laughter

and the clatter of glasses as these, and from the expressions of contentment on the faces of at least one or two of the Members here with a slight glance at Mr. McCauley, another at Mr. Cross, and still another at Mr. Sheria)—troars of laughter

and the clatter of glasses as these, and from the expressions of contentment on the faces of at least one or two of the Members here with a slight glance at Mr. McCauley, another at Mr. Cross, and still another at Mr. Sheria)—troars of laughter

and the clatter of glasses as these, and from the expressions of contentment on the faces of at least one or two of the Members here with a slight glance at Mr. McCauley, another at Mr. Cross, and still another at Mr. Sheria)—troars of laughter